

CyraShift Privacy Policy

Effective Date: June 2026

CyraShift is committed to protecting the privacy of our customers, website visitors, and business partners. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, share, and protect information obtained through our website, products, and B2B data services.

Information We Collect

Personal Information

Name, email address, phone number, company information, postal address, and information voluntarily submitted through contact forms, downloads, registrations, and inquiries.

Non-Personal Information

Browser type, operating system, IP address, device information, website activity, referral URLs, cookies, clickstream data, timestamps, and analytics data.

Business Data Services

CyraShift provides business-to-business (B2B) data solutions for sales, marketing, recruitment, lead generation, and business development purposes. Information within our databases may be sourced from publicly available records, company websites, professional directories, business listings, industry publications, trade associations, publicly available social and professional profiles, event registrations, and other commercially available sources.

How We Use Information

We use information to provide services, improve user experience, process inquiries, personalize communications, fulfill customer requests, improve website performance, conduct analytics, and send marketing communications where permitted by law.

Marketing Communications & CAN-SPAM Compliance

CyraShift complies with the CAN-SPAM Act and applicable U.S. marketing regulations. Marketing communications include an unsubscribe mechanism, and opt-out requests are processed promptly. Users may unsubscribe from promotional communications at any time.

Data Retention

Information may be retained as reasonably necessary for business operations, legal compliance, fraud prevention, dispute resolution, security monitoring, and enforcement of contractual obligations.

Data Sharing

We may share information with trusted service providers, business partners, professional advisors, payment processors, hosting providers, and governmental authorities when required by law. We do not sell consumer personal information to unauthorized third parties.

Data Accuracy Disclaimer

Due to the dynamic nature of business information, CyraShift does not guarantee that all data is complete, current, accurate, or error-free. Customers are responsible for independently verifying information before making business decisions.

Acceptable Use of Data

Customers are solely responsible for ensuring that their use of data obtained from CyraShift complies with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, including privacy, telemarketing, anti-spam, and marketing regulations.

Cookies Policy

We use cookies and similar technologies to improve website functionality, remember user preferences, analyze traffic, and provide relevant content. Users may disable cookies through browser settings; however, some website functionality may be affected.

California Privacy Rights

California residents may have additional privacy rights under applicable California privacy laws. Eligible requests regarding access, correction, or deletion of personal information may be submitted through our contact channels.

Data Security

CyraShift employs administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect information against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. While we maintain industry-standard security measures, no system can guarantee absolute security.

Third-Party Websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites. CyraShift is not responsible for the privacy practices, content, or security of external websites.

Children's Privacy

Our services are intended for business users and are not directed toward children. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children.

Policy Updates

CyraShift may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Updated versions will be posted on our website with a revised effective date.
